

Ripley Park Improvement Project

Beginning in the summer of 2020, the Cambridge Foundation will be working on the water retention challenges at Ripley Park. This phased project will add a beautiful wetland along with many native plantings to ensure proper drainage as well as supporting wildlife and pollinators.

Phase 1: access road, wetland installation, retention basin

Phase 2 & 3: will be accessed upon completion of phase 1

